

OCT 30 1951

Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Allen:

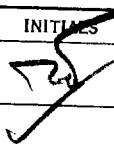

As you are aware, there was considerable thought and effort devoted over a period of time to preparing Plan [redacted] I am informed that good progress is being made by the Office of Intelligence Research, Department of State, with regard to the positive intelligence aspects of the Plan, but I have little information concerning the status of the Central Intelligence Agency's participation.

Would you be good enough to have a memorandum prepared for me indicating the present status of CIA's planning and activity with regard to Plan [redacted]

Sincerely,

[redacted]
Director
